January 2016

GREETINGS FROM THE EAST

First of all, I would like to thank you for electing me to serve the Lodge as its Master for 2016. It is truly an honor and the highlight of my Masonic journey. I pray that I will be able to meet and exceed your expectations as a leader. I will be drawing on the lessons learned while progressing thru the officer line and doing my best to apply the wise counsel given to me by those who have traveled the same or similar routes. I am counting on the fine line of Officers we have just installed to move the Lodge forward.

As geometry starts with a point and that point expands to a line and so forth, we need a point to focus on. That point is a Mission Statement and ours for the coming year is: "To Provide an Environment in which Good Men can become Better Men". This is not just for the new brother who is beginning his journey, but for every member of the Lodge! Executive training classes teach: for one to improve, one must evaluate the current status, decide on a plan for change, implement the change and re-evaluate to see if that change made a positive difference and then repeat as needed.

I challenge each of you to evaluate your progress on becoming a better man and if improvement is desired, make a plan to change. If the Lodge is not providing you with the environment you need to implement your change, ask an Officer to see if we can help to modify the environment. The environment includes but is not limited to; the building and its furnishings, the programs and the knowledge of the brothers providing guidance.

December has already started off with a flurry of activities, many of which are covered in other articles found throughout this Trestle Board. We had our Installation of Lodge Officers, an Action Planning meeting which defined the programs available this year, we had our Holiday Party which culminated a very successful Angel Giving Tree charity drive where many brothers and guests generously donated toys and clothes to needy children for Christmas.

Finally, I congratulate WB Merle Anderson on a fine year in which he evaluated and implemented changes. My hope is that we can do as good or better in the coming year.

Fraternally,

Bob Beffel
Worshipful Master

GREETINGS FROM THE WEST

Brothers,

Another year just is done! My, how quickly it flashed before our eyes.

It's a New Year, and wanted to thank everyone for a great year, 2015. It was a quick and busy year, and am looking forward to another fantastic year of 2016.

I hope everyone had a safe and wonderful Christmas and New Year with their friends and family.

From my heart I want to thank you for your electing me Senior Warden - am honored. and will do my best to try and fulfill the duties of my position and "do-right" by the craft and those that served before me. Moving to the West, I am relishing the opportunity to support Worshipful Bob Beffel in the Oriental Chair, as he continues our many fine traditions.

I would like to congratulate Worshipful Merle Anderson (PM), for his stewardship in the East, guiding our beloved Lodge through another year of challenges, while ever maintaining our high standards of ritual.

Want to thank the many Brothers for their support throughout the year.

As the new Senior Warden, I feel I'm leaving the South in the very capable hands of Bro, Curt Hill, our New Junior Warden.

I consider my time in the South a privilege, there were many helping hands along the way with Brothers ever ready to step up and help, in particular Brother Johnson who spent many hours over the stove.

Would like to congratulate all Brethren who were appointed to their offices.

Am very excited and look forward to working with them as well as the brethren in the upcoming years.

Thank you to everyone who attended the Installation of Officers on Sunday 12-13-15. We had close to a full house and delicious food.

Brothers, thank you for giving me this opportunity to serve as Senior Warden. It is indeed a great honor and privilege to serve this great Lodge of Scottsdale through the 2016 Masonic Year.

God Bless all, and wish everyone a healthy and prosperous New Year.

Fraternally and sincerely,
James Callahan
Senior Warden

From the Senior Stewards Chair

Happy New Year Brethren,

I wish to thank you all as well as our new Worshipful Master for your continued confidence in my abilities to serve this Lodge.

As is inherent with any changing of station, my duties for the year have changed. As opposed to saying the prayers during our meetings and ceremonies, I will now be doing a variety of tasks to benefit our Lodge.

I will be working with the Junior Steward to prepare new members for degree work before the ceremonies; making sure the candidate clothing is clean; greeting new people, members, really anyone who enter our doors. This is all of course in addition to the ceremonial duties of the station in which I have been entrusted to me.

I look forward to working with you all and promoting the welfare of the Lodge.

Fraternally,
Brother Matthew Hartzell
Senior Steward

HOLIDAY PARTY and THE ANGEL TREE

Brethren,

The Holiday Party this year was again a success.

We provided drinks, meatballs and noodles but everything else was pot luck.

The side dishes were great and the deserts were out of this world.

We had 32 people participate in the White Elephant exchange.

There were many nice gifts that got stolen until they were "safe".

There was even a gift that has been at the exchange for the past 4 Holiday Parties, the Santa Gnome!

It was especially nice to see so many new faces participating this year.

This party also marked the culmination of the Angel Giving Tree so all presents were on display.

The response to the Angel Giving Tree from Scottsdale Lodge and Friends was truly awesome!

Your generosity to the program will ensure some very happy faces at Christmas for those in need.

The tree was filled with 30 paper ornaments which were all picked up within two Lodge meetings.

The gifts were all returned by the Holiday Party for everyone to see, under the tree.

The next day we loaded up the SUV to capacity and delivered the gifts to the warehouse, where the gifts were then combined with others due that day for pickup on Monday.

Thank you so much for taking time to shop and also to Stephen Clarke for making sure the gifts get to the right families.

Amazing!

Fraternally,
Bob Beffel - WM

GREETINGS FROM THE SOUTH

Dear Brother,

The Installation of Officers for 2016 has come and gone and I now find myself in the honorable position of Junior Warden. As I try my best to fill the requirements of this position and to set an example for all the Brothers of the Lodge, I must look first at what the Junior Warden is charged with doing. At the Installation, the following words were read to me and I think you may find them interesting:

"To you is committed the superintendence of the Craft during the hours of refreshment. It is therefore indispensably necessary that you should not only be temperate and discreet in the indulgence of your own inclinations but that you should carefully observe that none of the Craft be suffered to convert the means of refreshment into intemperance and excess."

Well, taken literally, one might think this is a warning to not let the Brothers or myself drink too much, but, as we know, much of the writings of Masonry are meant to be taken metaphorically and applied to our lives outside of the Lodge as well as in it. The metaphorical meaning is not always clear. Luckily, something else was read to me that sheds a little light on the previous, and also illuminates the meaning of the symbol of my office.

"The Plumb - admonishes us to walk uprightly in our several stations, to hold the scale of justice in equal poise, to observe the just medium between intemperance and pleasure and to make our passions and prejudices coincide with the line of our duty... Look well to the South!"

Such an eloquent way of saying, be fair, everything in moderation, and make sure your likes and dislikes are conducive to your values, beliefs, and the way of life you would like to be known for.

What an honor it is for me to wear the Plumb and I invite you my Brother, to join me in "Looking well to the South!"

In Brotherly Love,
Curt Hills
Junior Warden

Outgoing WM Merle Anderson's Farewell

I would like to thank my friends and family for participating in this journey with me. It has been a challenge on many fronts the most is the time consideration. I never new this would be a second job. Beginning my journey was a necessity, I had 3 personal tragedies in my life in just a short period, and my grandmother advised me to find a lodge. Since my grandfather was a mason and he cherished being one I should seek it out. I grew up looking at his ring. Never knowing that it would be the path I would take to heal myself.

We have lost many good masons, I have attended too many funerals as master, one of these was my top-line signer WB Joel Adams no matter his pain he came to lodge to tell of his stories of the donkey and camel. Another mentor of mine we lost a few years ago was WB Dennis Sprouse and just recently RW John Engstrom who I went through the York Rite Degrees with, all our brothers we have lost will be sorely missed.

I began my Masonic Journey working in the kitchen for then JW John Reynolds. Where I found a bond with Lucas Jensen, Charles Castaneda, James Callahan and of course Bob Beffel and several others. I truly appreciate from the bottom of my heart all the men and women I have met in my journey as a member and officer of this lodge. In the coming days I am looking forward to my role I have in Amaranth as Bizzy's counterpart. And the trouble I am able to get her into.

If it wasn't for RW Scott Thomas I would not have been Master of Scottsdale Masonic Lodge for he had the vision to start me off as Tyler, then moving me up to Chaplin and at the end of his year awarded me with the O.C. Wilson Mason of the year.

I thank you Scott for all the guidance you have given me through the years, I am proud to call you my friend. WB Scott Tracy you are another true friend that I have the fortune to call brother and have appreciated your wise counsel. WB James Xie we have become great friends and brothers, I look forward to a long friendship. You may be young but your wisdom truly surpasses your youth.

I have truly made some of the best friends I could ever ask for and you know you are.

In closing.

Think about what constitutes a good and healthy lodge. Is it the largest, performs the best ritual, has a high percentage of retention, line officers who do the best in their chairs, and there are many more examples. So again, which factor will stand out to build the best lodge? Some will think ritual performance since that is said to produce masons.

Retention of members is a good indication of lodge health, and good health is always the base for a long life.

I have found not all men are meant to be officers as I have seen many not fulfill their duty. Line officers doing their jobs well could be the product of study and practice, must also be the work of those who live masonry. It shouldn't be difficult to go deeper and find more, but at the end, I believe it comes down to combining all ingredients into a rich mixture to produce the golden result, FELLOWSHIP, which places all on the one level, casting out elitism, real or felt, and providing a cohesive membership of Masons.

I believe there can be, and maybe should be, differences among men of goodwill, making good men, better men. Those who strive and have their eyes to the future.

Again thank you for allowing me the privilege to be Master of Scottsdale Masonic Lodge #43 2015.

Merle Anderson,
Worshipful Master 2015

From the Secretary's Desk

SECRETARY POSITION

As our new year soon starts, each officer is familiarizing himself with the duties and responsibilities of his position. Our point of reference begins with the Constitution and Statutes of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Arizona 2015 and is augmented through discussions with the officer who held the position in 2015 and Worshipful Master Bob Beffel. The Constitution spells the duties out in general, the preceding officer adds detailed specifics, and the Worshipful Master adds additional preferences and his key philosophies for the overall betterment of our lodge.

The Secretary serves at the will and pleasure of the Worshipful Master. Staying in tune with Worshipful Master Bob's goal of "To provide an environment in which a good man can become better!" I personally want all brethren to feel comfortable coming to me any time they need information or services. Of course, over the next year I will be entertaining a heavy learning curve so answers may require research on my part before I can respond to you properly.

Currently, the Secretary's Office is open Monday through Thursday from 10am until 1pm so stop by for a few minutes. I usually have a pot of coffee on if you'd like a cup. Thursday is the busiest day of the week due to getting prepared for our meetings.

The Secretary shall keep a copy of the Constitutions and Statutes of the Grand Lodge, which may from time to time be published, together with all the proceedings thereof as promulgated by its order.

The Secretary shall keep a record of all the members; the dates of their initiation, passing, raising, or affiliation; the name, number, and location of the Lodges of which those affiliated last were members; the age and occupation of each when received; and the dates of their withdrawal, expulsion, suspension, death, or restoration.

Duties include the administrative functions required of most businesses such as: processing documents, writing letters, maintaining office equipment and inventory, maintaining lodge databases, handling all requests from the Worshipful Master and brethren, answering phone calls, talking with prospective members to explain our Masonic fraternity, and most anything else that comes through our door.

I believe we will have a great year in 2016. There is a level of renewed excitement and we have many things to do which will give us all a greater sense of purpose and pride in being Masons. I encourage each of you to find a committee or role to serve on. If we all do a little bit, our lodge will be transformed into what we all desire in this great fraternity.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL MY BROTHERS!

Stephen Clarke

From the Marshal

Happy 2016 Brethren,

As we optimistically enter 2016, plotting the goals for the New Year, we may need to reflect upon the year past in order to gain perspective, orderly perspective. In the course of the recent Installation of New Officers of our Lodge, order is what the position of Marshal vowed to uphold in Temple for the coming year. The Baton is an emblem of his office. The crossed Batons are depicted on his jewel he honorably displays around his neck.

In our Lodge, the Marshal has the unique duty of interrogating new candidates, prior to their first degree, to ensure they have honorable intentions before they proceed with the degrees of Masonry. This maybe the galvanizing moment our candidate realizes they are about to embark on a life long journey of service and self betterment. Our Lodge is among the finest in assisting good men realizing their potential and become better.

The Marshal serves at the pleasure of the WM and is tasked with monitoring Lodge during session to assure order. The Marshal can be viewed as the traffic cop, making sure there are no accidents or disturbances during lodge and assures things run orderly. Order is necessary to assure peace and harmony during Lodge. Order is necessary when plotting sound plans and goals for the coming year and beyond. I wish you fair skies and a pleasant breeze at your back throughout 2016.

Fraternally,
Brother William F. Wilkins
Marshal

From the Chaplain

Greetings Brethren,

As your Chaplain, I hold the position of being the spiritual leader of the lodge and I am responsible for leading us in non-denominational prayers during our rituals and meetings. In addition to the spiritual aspects of my position, I am also the lodge's official prompter and will have my blue ritual book open during meetings to ensure that we are performing our ritual work correctly. My goal as the prompter is not to correct every minor mistake, but to aid our brethren who are struggling to perform our ritual work when needed. I feel that gently admonishing a brother of his more minor ritual errors following a lodge session can help to improve his ritual work in the future. A new thing some of you may have already noticed is that for this year, I have been asked by our Worshipful Master to cite the circumambulation prayers from the altar as opposed to moving around. The idea as it was presented to me was to create a focal point around the altar. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this change, please speak to the Worshipful Master directly.

Fraternally,
Jonathan Beffel
Chaplain

From the Tyler

THE DOOR

What someone sees as a door to the lodge room, the mason sees as more. On one side are all the values personified in masonry, visualized and acted upon; on the other, not the profane as such, but the ordinary pursuits of living. This door, guarded by the tyler's sword, must of necessity, be a barrier between the two. In the perfect world, there would be no door as all would be the embodiment of the mason. We know not when this could be, so until then, we seal the door and wait.

The Tyler's position probably is the most misunderstood of all the chairs. It is thought it's somebody who sits outside who waits for a knock on the door so he can knock back. It is thought by some officers as the first step toward advancing in the line. In truth, it is a responsible position best occupied by a long time mason, a regular attender, mature, with practical knowledge of how things work. He must be a personable greeter, remember visitors who have been here before, and take the responsibility of conducting examinations on first time visitors. Informally, he can be a big help to the stewards as they prepare candidates for degrees. There are many nuances to the tiler's position, which rise and fall with circumstances. Perhaps being tyler may be the sole position without 100% definition of duties, one that requires rolling with changing situations. Surely as stated, it is not the kindergarten of the line, but in reality a post graduate position.

2016 Installation of Officers

The 2016 Officers of Scottsdale Masonic Lodge #43, were installed into their stations and places on Sunday, Dec 13, 2015.

There was a great turnout by family and friends.

Many thanks to the Installing officers, MWB Jim Rowan, RWB Scott Thomas and WB James "Bucky" Riggins as well as the Knights of Saint Andrew, Knights Templar and Job's Daughters plus the musical accompaniment of VWB Mike McGee and WB Carlos Rausch.

The 2015 Officers marched in to bagpipe music, the Lodge was opened for installation with a combined Flag Presentation by both the KSA and the Knights Templar.

WM Merle presented the O. C. Wilson award to Dr. Darrell Smith for all his work this past year and then gave his Farwell address followed by one final congratulations to his officers for a fine year.

The 2016 Officers were then escorted into the Lodge by RWB Scott Thomas as the Installing Marshal, again to bagpipes (this was one of the 1st times WB Carlos got to march in with the other officers).

Each officer was installed, WB Carlos first so he could provide music as the new officers were escorted to their stations and places by the Installing Marshal.

MWB Jim Rowan, as usual did a very impressive job as the Installing Master by explaining each Officer's duties and the badge of their office flawlessly and with meaning.

WB Bucky Riggins (PM of Scottsdale in 1995) delivered an inspiring opening prayer and benediction.

Prior to approaching the East, WB Bob Beffel was escorted by his wife Nancy through a combined honor guard from the Knights Templar and Knights of Saint Andrew.

Finally, RWB Scott declared the Proclamation, making everything official.

Since WB Bob is from Wisconsin, one of his presentation gifts was a "Cheese Head" Top Hat (see below). Everyone got a good chuckle out of that.

The officers got together and presented a Masonic gavel, which is in the shape of a Maul.

After installation, the officers retired to a receiving line and then everyone enjoyed plenty of food and beverages.

Why Masons leave Masonry by Jeff Peace, Masonic Historian posted in the Freemasonry online.

I began the process of addressing the many issues faced by modern Freemasonry. While many openly admit that there is a membership problem, they assume it's due to a lack of interest in Freemasonry. However the statistics reveal that the real problem isn't obtaining new members, but retaining them. The fraternity loses 90% of all new members within 24 months. Why?

People join the Masonic Fraternity for a wide variety of reasons, but in the end they expect it to be a brotherhood based on moral principles and equality. What they soon discover is something more akin to George Orwell's Animal Farm. They are told that all Masons are equal, and that they meet on the Level and part on the Square, but the soon observe that all Masons are equal, only some are more equal than others. The plethora of honorary degrees, titles, and invitational organizations has resulted in an elite class of Masons who feel entitled to more privilege than that of the lowly Master Mason. Due to this, Masonry has devolved from the ideal of a brotherhood of all mankind into a quest for honors, titles and privilege. Ironically, every candidate is informed that Freemasonry is not a place to seek after frivolous honors, titles and privileges.

While this system may have served the fraternity well during the 19th Century, it is a boat anchor in the age of social networking. It makes the high ideals of Freemasonry appear to be nothing more than a convenient lie. This in turn brings in to question the moral credibility of the entire institution.

Millennials and Generation X members walk away in disgust and tell their friends about Animal Farm Masonry, but not the true spirit of Freemasonry because they never had the opportunity to experience it.

Every lodge has one or more bullies who feel it is their right to not only criticize new members, but control every facet of how a lodge operates. They all use familiar arguments such as "We've always done it this way" When confronted with changes their threat of last resort is "I am calling the Grand Lodge" These men are not real Masons. They don't even understand the meaning of brotherhood. The only solution to this problem is to expel the bullies, thereby restoring a sense of brotherhood in the lodges.

The bully problem is closely connected to the Animal Farm mentality that has been accepted as the norm in modern Freemasonry. The bullies are almost always a part of some elite or supposedly honorary Masonic body. There are, however, other cases where the bully takes great pride in being a simple "Master Mason", and because he has not allowed himself to become "polluted" by the doctrine of elitism, he becomes the self sacrificing man that demands honor and privilege for his sacrifice.

Bullies, in any form, destroy the spirit of brotherhood, and thereby Freemasonry. Ugly lodge politics is closely related to both of the problems listed above. The result is always loss of members.

New members are almost always rushed into the officer line of the lodge and presented with the idea that if they do all the memory work they will advance to the chair in the east. Unfortunately, this isn't always the case. Sometimes they get voted out of the line because they have advocated for changes or upset a Past Master.

If someone has spent years memorizing the work and they are stopped from advancing they will feel cheated. What kind of brotherhood cheats its members out of things they have worked hard to achieve?

The rules forbid politics in lodge. Enforce the rules and expel those who bring ugly politics into your lodge.

The world has changed tremendously since 1717, and Freemasonry continued to evolve along with it until 1963. At this point in time "Change" became a dirty word to Freemasons. The result has been catastrophic.

Freemasonry needs to adapt to the society in which it exist, or face being ignored and persecuted for folly. While the high ideals of brotherhood and morality should never be sacrificed, archaic ideas and old conventions must be abandoned to make way for the new. Life itself is a constant flow of changes. Why do some Freemasons feel Freemasonry is exempt from change?

Conclusion:

Animal Farm Freemasonry, Masonic Bullies, and unwillingness to Change are the three top reasons why modern Freemasonry has a membership retention problem. Solving these problems requires a great deal of soul searching on the part of the leadership of the fraternity, and a willingness to take meaningful action on the part of the membership. The future can be bright if Masons are willing to face the challenges ahead with an open mind and a firm resolve to do what is required for success.

People want to be part of a true brotherhood that operates with moral conviction, and expresses a philosophy that leads to virtue and self improvement. Freemasonry can be that brotherhood if enough Masons want it to be.

Action Planning Meeting

On Dec 10, the WB Bob Beffel outlined his calendar year at an Action Planning Meeting held in the dining room.

He described the programs he was implementing and defined Committee Chairmen to guide those programs.

He also outlined duties for the Chairmen and Members as provided by Bro. Tony Darin, an expert in the field.

These programs will not succeed if people do not participate.

For many years we have been cutting programs to reduce costs but the feedback we got was that it reduced the number of reasons to come to Lodge.

This is a vicious cycle that needs to stop or we will no longer have a Lodge or even a fraternity.

The other thing defined at this meeting was a Mission Statement for Scottsdale Lodge – “To provide an environment in which good men can become better men”.

If we remember that every activity at Scottsdale needs to support this Mission, then all the other issues we have will take care of themselves.

Amaranth

Happy Holidays! Members of Kinishba Court have been very busy attending installations, working fundraisers for our Diabetes Fund and having a great time as we close out 2015. We are proud of our Sir Knights who have served Scottsdale Lodge this past year and those that will serve in the upcoming year. We enjoyed cultivating our fraternal bonds of friendship with the Brethren of the Lodge and look forward to continuing the relationship in 2016.

Wisdom is one of the virtues of the Order of the Amaranth. The members of Amaranth believe that through Wisdom we can determine the best procedures to ensure our success. As we approach a new year, the members of the Order will reflect on those achievements and disappointments of 2015 and going forward work to build on the successes and rethink the failures. By exemplifying the virtue of Wisdom, we will continue to grow and succeed in all our endeavors.

Happy New Year! May 2016 be the best year yet!
