Volume 68 Issue 10

December 2017 Issue

Merry Christmas, Happy Hannukah and Happy New Year

GREETINGS FROM THE EAST

December is now upon us and it represents a season of change. During this month, the elliptical orbit of the Earth around the sun approaches perihelion, its closest point to the sun. Because of the tilt of the Earth, the days stop getting shorter and each day brings more and more light. It is also a season of change in our Masonic Lodge – a new Master takes his place in the Oriental East and each member of the officer line takes on new responsibilities, preparing him for his time in the East.

My goal, as all Masters before me, is to leave the Lodge in better shape than when I arrived. I hope I have lived up to that goal, especially in the eyes of all its members. I know I have personally grown to become a better man, while fulfilling all the responsibilities required of the Master of our Lodge. I am sure I have left things undone that will need to be attended to by my successors. To them I say, enjoy the ride.

I would like to leave you with a final thought. We are all aware that no atheist can become a Mason because no obligation would be considered binding upon them. If a person does not believe in a Supreme Being, then he must believe everything is the result of a series of accidents. Atoms smashing into atoms to form molecules and molecules combining into elements, releasing energy in the process. If everything is an accident - then your actions, good or bad have no meaning and good men can not become better men, except by accident. So why bother. I choose on the other hand to believe actions matter and I enjoy spending time with like minded brothers who want to improve themselves.

It has been my pleasure to have served the Lodge as its Master for the past 2 years and I am confident its future is in good hands.

Sincerely and Fraternally,
Bob Beffel
 Worshipful Master

GREETINGS FROM THE WEST

Brothers,
 It is December. This is the month that the officers of our Lodge are installed in the next higher chair, the Senior Warden steps up, and the Worshipful Master steps out. It is December, and it is the season of change.

It will particularly be a time of change for me, as I will now take the helm of Scottsdale 43, willingly and knowingly accepting the responsibility for its course, grateful for the past year under the mentor-ship of Worshipful Master Bob Beffel and equally grateful that I have such capable and dedicated officers in my line.

Worshipful Master Bob Beffel is leaving me a Lodge in fine working order. My objective is to uphold his high standards in the operation of the Lodge and to continue to improve our ritual as all Masons should strive to do.

I am excited to see what the upcoming year will bring, and dedicating to keeping our Lodge a good Lodge, and providing a rewarding masonic experience for all of our Brothers and every member of our Masonic family.

GREETINGS FROM THE SOUTH

Special Holiday Masonic version of the Night Before Christmas

Lodge Number One, the North Pole

‘Twas the Night before Christmas, and down at the Lodge
Not a gavel was stirring, and in the hodge-podge
Of aprons and jewels and chairs East and West
You could savor the silence, most gladly divest
All metal and mineral, it mattered not,
Since Christmas was nigh and the coals were still hot.
In the hearth of your homeplace, all Masons abed,
As visions of trestleboards danced in their head;
When up on the roof there arose such a clatter
Our Tiler jumped up to see what was the matter!
He picked up his sword and ran fast to the door,
Three knocks shook the panels — he wondered “What for?”

He answered the knocking with raps of his own,
And once the door opened he saw, with a moan
Of delight it was Santa, all jolly and red
Except for one notable feature instead!
Upon his large finger he wore what we knew
Was compasses and square on a background of blue!
“Why Santa!” he shouted and lowered his blade,
“I see you’re a Mason!” the Tiler relayed.
He looked tow’rd the Master’s most dignified chair
And said, voice near trembling, “Most Worshipful Sir
There’s a Gentleman properly clothed at the gate!
The Master replied, “Let’s allow him — but wait!
You tell me a Gentleman, but I don’t see
His Apron beneath that red suit, can it be
Our visitor hasn’t been properly raised?
Must we offer a test that is suitably phrased?”
“I do beg your pardon,” ol’ Santa said quick
As he pulled up his coat and displayed not a stick
But a cane with engraving, two balls did appear
And oh, what an apron, he wore and held dear!
Adorned like the Master’s, complete with a sign
Of “Lodge Number One, the North Pole” on one line!
“Now let this man enter,” the Master declared,
And once in the Lodge room, the Brethren all stared,
For Santa was wearing a jewel not seen
For many a century — there in between
The fur of his coat and the splendid red collar
Gleamed two golden reindeer that shone line a dollar!
“It’s Donner and Blitzen, who I must confess
Are actually images brought from the West
By my Warden, a craftsman like none in the world!”
And with a great laugh from his bag he unfurled

An ear of fine corn, and some oil from the East,
“My friends I have plenty, tonight we will feast
On all that is good! We are Masons, kind sir!”
A murmur went throughout the Lodge, quite a stir,
As presents and promises flew from his sack!
This Santa, a Mason, showed he had a knack
For making this Christmas the best you could glean,
And soon even Deacons were laughing, they’d seen
On this very night only happiness reigned!
This jolly Saint Nicholas quickly explained
That only a Mason could be so inclined
To make all kids happy, make all people find
A Christmas so special, yes, Santa was right!
Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night!”

2018 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION TIME

College Scholarships are available through information and a copy of the application.

From Our Past Tyler

IT’S ABOUT TIME

Time is unending. It encircles oneself as would an unbroken chain. It keeps us captive by it's dawns and dusks, it's noons and midnights. We may think we are enclosed by the unending circle, but it is the effect of time that liberates us, giving us the time to accept both the opportunities and difficulties that come our way. In some fashion, time is a great leveler. It is equal in size, frequency, and in most cases, quantity. Time is unseen, but the amounts of it are measured in sunrises and sunsets, work and resting, eating and sleeping, as well as church bells, alarms, Big Ben, and watches. It has provided the means to invent the wheel and the nuclear explosion.

We revere the time that is given to us, and the willingness to make it useful or wasted. Time is a storehouse for memories when we go back in time to spend brief visits to the past. We borrow time from the future by procrastination. Because our world is round, there are equal amounts of time for every place on earth. Time itself can be equated with space, to be filled to the top, or not be availed to the fullest. It is not seen, but easily felt. It is the Great Regulator.

Dave Woodland PM

Have you looked at this website?

In an ongoing effort to keep in touch with the Masons of Arizona, the Social Media Committee of the Grand Lodge of Arizona has launched an online Social Media monthly newsletter to recap some of the items each month that are trending around the State.

We hope that it will encourage communication and share knowledge around the State while also giving another outlet to the activities of our many Lodge in Arizona. As is the case with Social Media, we intend for it to be enjoyable and informative and hope that it will grow and adapt to the needs and wants of our Craft as it progresses.
