GREETINGS FROM THE WEST

This month I want to expand on one of our most well-known Masons, brother Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart.

"Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was twenty-eight years of age when, in the autumn of 1784, he joined a Masonic Lodge. As a pianist, little Wolfgang had been an infant prodigy, exhibited by his father throughout Europe, but he was now a recognized and admired composer living in Vienna. The very year of his initiation his first great opera, The Marriage of Figaro, had been produced in Paris. This was, however, before the days of copyright law and the earnings of genius were meager.

During the eighteenth century, Freemasonry in Vienna had a political as well as a benevolent side. It counted as its members many highly placed politicians and ecclesiastics whose ideal was the regeneration of humanity by moral means. It was hated by the Catholic Church and certain despotic political authorities who deemed it dangerous, both to religion and the well-being of the state. The Church, however, even as today in certain Latin countries, did not consider it expedient to challenge high-placed persons nominally its members but also of the Fraternity.

The Empress Maria Theresa had been one who was opposed to Masonry and, in 1743, had ordered a Viennese Lodge raided, forcing its Master and her husband, Francis I, to make his escape by a secret staircase. The Emperor Joseph II (1780-90) was favorably inclined to the Fraternity, although the clergy did their best to get the Lodges suppressed.

Such was the Masonic milieu when

Wolfgang Mozart became a Master Mason. He must have been greatly moved and inspired by his experience. Almost immediately he composed his Freemason's Funeral Music and his music for the opening and closing of a Lodge. He now composed his opera, Don Giovanni, and his three great symphonies - the E flat, the G minor and the C major, as well as a great number of concertos and chamber-music works.

His last great opera, The Magic Flute, opened in Vienna on the evening of September 30, 1791. Mozart conducted the first two performances, when he was overtaken by his last illness. He lingered on while the opera had an unprecedented run of more than one hundred consecutive performances. It is said that in his sick bed, watch in hand, he would follow in imagination the performance of The Magic Flute in the theatre. Then he died after its 67th performance.

The Magic Flute makes no mention of Freemasonry as such, but it has always been accepted as a Masonic opera. Musicians assert that even the music has much Craft significance, beginning in the overture with its three solemn chords in the brass.

In keeping with the fashion of the time, the plot is half-serious, half-comic, a fantasy of magic and mystery laid in a never-never land called Egypt. It depicts the ancient mysteries and presents much Craft symbolism. To the Viennese of that day, The Queen of the, Night was clearly the unfriendly Empress Maria Theresa the good Sarasto was Ignas von Born, an eminent scientist and Masonic leader the hero Tamino was the good Emperor Joseph and the heroine Pamina, the Austrian people themselves.

The first program credited the libretto to the actor-producer, Schikaneder, but it is now thought that it was written by Giesceke, the friend and intimate of Goethe and Schiller, who probably desired to remain anonymous for political reasons.

The opera has remained popular through the years and is included in the present repertoire of the Metropolitan Opera Company.”

From the South

Brethren,

The year 2021 has flown by. We are already in the midst of the halfway point of the year, with many events to look forward to. I want to thank all the members of Friend of Friend that have helped in the kitchen so far this year. The help is always appreciated. We have some great men that will be seeking petitions soon!

Please enjoy an article about Brother Davey Crocket from Illustrious Brother Steven L Harris:

It has long been a well-known historical fact Brother Davy Crockett (1786–1836) was a patriot and hero who gave his life in defense of freedom at the Alamo in 1836. By the late 19th century, however, Crockett was largely a forgotten figure. The events leading to Texas' independence and eventual statehood were long in the past and very few remembered the names of the brave soldiers who helped bring it about. The situation changed when, in the mid-1950s, Brother Crockett transcended all that and became an American icon with the release of Walt Disney's television series about his life, as well as the movie, "Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier." Since that time the series has been replayed to the point that every kid learns about Crockett's heroism at an early age.

Interestingly, Crockett's rise to the level of superstar almost didn't happen.

In 1946, famed artist Thomas Hart Benton (related to two famous Masons with the same name, but not a Mason himself) briefly worked for Disney, and came to him with an idea for a show. He presented Disney with an outline for a musical about Crockett's life called "Hunter From Kentucky."

To be generous, Disney (who as a youth was a DeMolay) thought Benton's concept was poor and he quickly shelved the project — with the intention it would never be used. However, in 1954, the weekly TV series known today as The Wonderful World of Disney premiered. Less than a year later, the Disneyland theme park opened, TV ratings skyrocketed and Disney started a daily show, The Mickey Mouse Club. Producing a minimum of six shows per week, Disney's appetite for material became voracious. So he went back to his "dead ideas" file and there he found

Benton's mercifully forgotten manuscript.

Disney handed the project to his staff, which reworked the idea into something that, in reality, bore little if any resemblance to the outline from Benton. The product Disney's talented writers came up with arguably might be the most popular show ever to emerge from the Disney studios — but one thing is certain: the series almost instantly catapulted Brother Davy Crockett from obscurity to rock star status

FROM THE LIBRARY

Scottsdale Lodge Memories

One of the most interesting things in the library is a gavel. O.C. Wilson was one of the founders of Scottsdale Lodge 43 and it's first Worshipful Master. He used this gavel in the first year, 1950, and likely at the meetings when the Lodge was being formed. The gavel was around the Lodge for many years and used by Wardens and some Worshipful Masters. It is unusual because it is one piece tree with a 90 degree branch or a branch with a smaller 90 degree branch. In the tear 2000, 50 years later, Worshipful Master Chuck Squires ordered the gavel not be used any more, except if an incoming Master wanted to use it at his installation. The gavel is in great condition and should last many more years if used at the most once a year. When it was taken out of service it was taken down to Wood Workers World to see what the wood actually was. They took it and studied it for some time and could not tell us what kind of tree it came from. This is just one of the interesting artifacts in the library.

Another historical gem in our library is the album with a collection of photos from Lodges our Brothers came from or visited over many years. If you have photos you'd like to contribute , please contact Brother Ritchie

With the many Brothers who are bike riders, perhaps a #43 Group could be officially formed that would ride in parades and continue social activities together, while promoting Brotherhood and Masonry. If someone wants to head this up, please speak to our WM.

Note: Insurance riders would probably be needed.

BROTHERS – IMPORTANT NOTICE

Brothers, if you haven't been receiving the Monday evening email blast from the lodge, we probably don't have a valid email address for you. Please update your information including mailing address with the lodge secretary at secretary@scottsdalelodge43.com or call him at 480-946-1072. Thank you for taking care of this immediately!

WANTED...RETIRED BROTHERS

We need retired brothers who would be willing to serve on the Celestial Journey Team (Funeral Team). We don't have too many funerals throughout the year normally. Sometimes there is not a lot of notice (a few days) and right now most of our list is comprised of working brothers who can't respond that quickly. Usually, the funerals only take an hour or less. Please consider dedicating your efforts to your departed brothers by serving on the Celestial Journey Team. Email Brother Steve Clarke eispro@leaders-view.com with your email address and phone number. Call him with questions at 480-946-5390. Thank you!

Arizona Grand Lodge Website

In an ongoing effort to keep in touch with the Masons of Arizona, the Social Media Committee of the Grand Lodge of Arizona has launched an online Social Media monthly newsletter to recap some of the items each month that are trending around the State.

We hope that it will encourage communication and share knowledge around the State while also giving another outlet to the activities of our many Lodges in Arizona. As is the case with Social Media, we intend for it to be enjoyable and informative and hope that it will grow and adapt to the needs and wants of our Craft as it progresses.

MASON of the Year Award

Worshipful Brother Thomas A. Burke donated the engraving for both the 2019 and 2020 Mason of the Year nameplates. WB Burke noticed the nameplates had not been engraved. He then discovered the local vendor had gone out of business. Another vendor located in Phoenix could match the font, and WB Burke proceed with the order as a donation for the lodge. He states that he is very glad to recognize Worshipful Brother Steven Sampson for his achievements in 2019 with this small token, as WB Sampson had been very helpful for WB Burke during his first year at the lodge.

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Burke

FREEDOM

Freedom is not a heartfelt trait. It has been fought for, practiced, loved, and protected. Passed on to the children, taught, and well explained. It is then passed on as the treasure we know it to be.

Freedom may be passed on to new generations, it may be acquired, but never recovered if once lost. It must be seen as a conscious and a priceless asset, relying on our consciousness of necessity. Freedom doesn't exist in doses, which vary in strength and quality. There is nothing akin to a little bit of freedom, only being free or not. It cannot operate in pieces here and there, like a cleared field with an acreage partly missing.

Behold a popular expression, that freedom is not free. It must be guarded like Fort Knox gold times ten.

Fraternally,
Dave Woodland, PM

THANK YOU!

A heartfelt "thank you" to the many brothers who have made donations along with their 2021 Dues payments to help the lodge building fund. Many of our Perpetual Members have also donated to the building fund, and other brothers have donated in-kind goods and services. Your generosity is indicative of our strong fraternity and our deep bonds of brotherly love and friendship.

HELP FOR OR HEROS IS STILL NEEDED

Many brothers of Scottsdale Lodge have donated money to Chhaya Tan's "Donut Parlor" for donuts that we distribute to healthcare and first responders. Last week the last fifteen dozen donuts were delivered to healthcare workers. Donations from our brothers have stopped for the past month. Many of us have made sizable donations over the past six months to the point where we are "tapped out." If any of our approximately 383 brothers can donate it will be great, otherwise, the program to keep the spirits alive with our healthcare and first responders will need to stop. Please consider if you can help out with a donation. All you need to do is call Chhaya at \(480\) 570-1900 and tell him how much you'd like to donate. As Masons and Brothers of Scottsdale 43, let's do what we can to keep this charitable effort alive for people who really deserve it!

I will be working with Brother Ryan's wife Amy to provide weekly and if needed event driven updates.

For the first post can we use the content (see below) she has put in the About section of the Facebook fundraiser page?

From Amy

Update about Ryan Wilson from Amy Wilson (his wife): we got some great news - he doesn't have skin cancer (which is a relief). Also, he's good to go to have the ostomy bag reversed at the end of May, so he'll have at least another 8 weeks of recovery after that surgery. I've been looking for part-time work I can do from home, so I can still take care of Ryan during this time, and have received some assistance for food, but we still need help with paying rent, the monthly COBRA payments and other expenses. Any amount helps!

Thank you so much

Rob

I would also ask the Brethren to keep Ryan in their prayers as this in my experience has always help spiritually and physically

Brothers, Thank you all from the bottom of my heart. I have been in this situation myself and know how badly the stress over financial concerns and medical coverage can negatively affect one's recovery.

Brothers Helping Brothers

It has come to the attention of the Lodge that some of our Brothers still are having a challenging time during the business shutdowns facing all of us. Loss of jobs, businesses and income are very stressful in normal times and during these times are even more so.

Please if your business can use more publicity at this time, notify the Lodge Secretary and he will see that it is distributed to the members who then, may seek you out for their needs.

Brothers try and help your Brothers whenever possible, within the length of your Cable tow. The Grand Hailing Sign is in view, please respond accordingly.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEW MASTER MASON BROTHER JACOB WILLIAM THOMPSON

Did you know this about our Lodge Sign?

SCOTTSDALE LODGE SIGN

Several years ago a Brother of our Lodge, John Solimena, went to a trustees meeting. He brought up to the trustees that the small Lodge sign attached to the front of the building was not doing the job. It was too small and blocked by palm trees. He suggested the Lodge put up a larger sign. The trustees agreed with him. They asked John what a sign would cost. He admitted he did not know so he was appointed a committee of one to find out the cost of new signs. John contacted several sign companies but none would give him a price without a design. John then came up with the design we have today. He returned to the trustees, showed his design and advised the cost would be five thousand dollars ($5,000.00). The trustees liked the design but did not have a spare five thousand dollars at this time for a sign. John, being a committee of one advised the trustees that he would see about obtaining the needed funds. He then returned to the trustees with the complete funding for the sign. Sadly he recently passed and the Lodge voted to place a second plaque on the sign showing who suggested, designed, and funded the sign. He will be long remembered in this Lodge.
