Welcome to the new Trestleboard for Scottsdale Masonic Lodge #43

Ages ago the Trestleboard was the means by which masons received their daily jobs and information. Here in this modern Trestleboard we will continue to inform our brothers of masonic insights from our pedestal officers, what the lodge has been doing and what the future activities are. You can see who's celebrating a Masonic Birthday, any Brother's that have moved on to the Celestial Lodge above and photos of special activities, celebrations and much more.

From the East

Brethren,

As Masons, we are custodians of ancient wisdom and symbolism, drawing inspiration from the natural world around us. In our journey, let us pause to recognize and appreciate the divine essence of womanhood and motherhood, mirroring the nurturing embrace of Mother Earth herself.

In our rituals and teachings, we often invoke the imagery of the

From the West

As we celebrate the month of May, it is fitting to pause and reflect on the significant role that the feminine plays in our lives, both within our personal relationships and in the natural world around us. As Freemasons, we recognize the importance of balance and harmony, and the feminine is an essential part of that equation.

First and foremost, we must acknowledge and honor the women in our

From the South

Greetings from the South,

Brethren, for this month of May, we are making tribute to the feminine in our lives and in nature, and we will see this manifested in our Ladies Night on Friday, May 3rd @ 6pm at the Lodge. Please bring the Ladies in your life so that we may be able to honor them with a wonderful dinner and entertainment. It will be a beautiful and important evening, as the Ladies of our lodge play a critical role in us maintaining nurturing Earth, symbolizing fertility, growth, and abundance. Similarly, we honor the women in our lives who embody these qualities, whether as mothers, wives, sisters, or daughters. Just as the Earth provides sustenance and life, women enrich our existence with their love, wisdom, and strength.

Reflecting on the cycles of nature, we see how womanhood parallels the seasons. Like the blossoming of spring, women bring forth new life and possibilities. In their nurturing embrace, we find warmth and shelter, akin to the summer sun. And just as autumn leaves gracefully surrender, women guide us through times of transition with grace and resilience.

In our lodges, let us cultivate an atmosphere of respect and appreciation for the feminine aspect of creation. Let us honor the women who have shaped our lives and our fraternity, recognizing their invaluable contributions to our journey. May we strive to uphold the principles of equality and inclusion, embracing the diversity of talents and perspectives that women bring to our midst.

As we walk the path of enlightenment, let us remember that true wisdom embraces both the masculine and feminine energies of the universe. Just as the compass guides our actions, so too does the heart illuminate our path. Let us cherish and celebrate the sacred bond between man and woman, recognizing that together, we are stronger and more complete.

In closing, let us extend our heartfelt gratitude to the women who enrich our lives with their love, wisdom, and grace. May we always walk hand in hand, united in our quest for truth, enlightenment, and brotherly love.

lives – our mothers, wives, daughters, sisters, and friends. These remarkable individuals offer us unwavering support, love, and guidance, and their contributions to our personal growth and happiness cannot be overstated. It is our duty as Masons to treat the women in our lives with the utmost respect, compassion, and appreciation.

Beyond our personal relationships, the feminine is also deeply ingrained in the symbolism and teachings of Freemasonry. The concept of Mother Nature, for example, represents the nurturing, life-giving force that sustains us all. In Masonic symbolism, the moon is often associated with the feminine, representing intuition, empathy, and the cyclical nature of life.

Furthermore, the virtues of compassion, beauty, and loving-kindness are often associated with the feminine principle. These qualities are essential to the Masonic pursuit of personal growth and moral uprightness. By cultivating these virtues within us, we become better men and better Masons. The Cardinal Virtues of Temperance, Fortitude, Prudence, and Justice are also traditionally expressed as feminine, with the virtuous wisdom of man flowing from the feminine of the species.

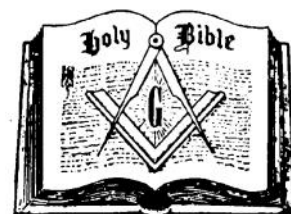

As we go about our lives this month, let us take a moment to express our gratitude for the feminine influences that shape our world. Consider reaching out to the women in your life to let them know how much you appreciate them or take part in activities that celebrate the beauty and power of Mother Nature.

By embracing and honoring the feminine, we not only become better men but also better Masons. We strengthen our connections with others and deepen our understanding of the complex tapestry of life.

and growing our fraternity. As I reflect on this year so far as Junior Warden of Scottsdale 43, it is abundantly apparent the role the ladies in my life have played in making this year as successful as it has been in the Kitchen and in the Lodge. Not a Thursday in the kitchen has gone by where I have not reflected on my childhood and my Mom cooking dinner for her six children, plus all the family holidays where the attendance in our family could easily exceed seventy-five people. Prior to being elected Junior Warden, I had often cooked for my family of four and the occasional party of 10 or so, but never had I experienced cooking for large groups of hungry people. My mother's experience and wisdom in how much food to purchase and prepare for a large event has directly influenced my approach to preparing our meals, as well and most importantly, her calm, steady, and joyful manner in which she went about the business of feeding a full household.

We refer to our home Lodge as our Mother Lodge, not only is it where we are birthed into this life of Masonry, but it is where we are first nurtured, raised, and loved as we learn to stand just and upright in all our doings. It is here where we find the much needed patience to persevere, and the guidance and inspiration to expect more of ourselves - that through our work in the degrees, we discover that we are capable of doing much more than perhaps we had ever thought possible of ourselves. Not only does the expectations arise within and around us as we take on more and more responsibilities in our Lodge, but also does the nourishment, sustenance, and encouragement we need to realize those aspirations. Our Mother Home Lodge prepares us for the journey ahead, in all the directions it may take, and yet she is always here for us to return with meals, hugs, and words of wisdom. There is an important responsibility in there for us though: Not only must we honor our Mother Lodge - we must remember that she needs us too. Our continual presence and participation in her life gives her exactly what she needs to thrive with joy and wisdom - our love and dedication keeps her flame burning and the light's on for whenever we need her.

Have a wonderful month of May, and I look forward to seeing you and your ladies on Friday, May 3rd!

Fraternally,

Congratulations to our newly raised Brother Nate Mays and with some of the MM Brothers who were at the Degree.

A well deserved promotion

What Makes A Mason?

What makes you a Mason, O brother of mine?

It isn't the dueguard, nor is it the sign, It isn't the jewel which hangs on your breast, It isn't the apron in which you are dressed, It isn't the step, nor the token, nor grip, Nor lectures that fluently flow from the lip, Nor yet the possession of that mystic word, On five points of fellowship duly conferred.

Though these are essential, desirable, fine, They don't make a Mason, O brother of mine.

That you to your sworn obligation are true- Tis, that, brother mine, makes a Mason of you.

Secure in your heart you must safeguard your trust, With lodge and with brother be honest and just, Assist the deserving who cry in their need, Be chaste in thought, in your word and deed, Support him who falters, with hope banish fear, And whisper advice in an erring one's ear.

Then will the Great Lights on your path brightly shine, And you'll be a Mason, O brother of mine.

Your use of life's hours by the gauge you must try, The gavel to vices with courage apply Your walk must be upright, as shown by the plumb, On the level, to bourn whence no travelers come The book of your faith be the rule and the guide, The compass your passions shut safely inside The stone which the Architect placed in your care Must pass the strict test of His unerring square, And then you will meet with approval divine, And you'll be a Mason, O brother of mine.

NEEDED...RETIRED BROTHERS

We need retired brothers who would be willing to serve on the Celestial Journey Team (Funeral Team). We don't have too many funerals throughout the year normally. Sometimes there is not a lot of notice (a few days) and right now most of our list is comprised of working brothers who can't respond that quickly. Usually, the funerals only take an hour or less. Please consider dedicating your efforts to your departed brothers by serving on the Celestial Journey Team. Contact Brother Brian Zeman

Brothers Working With Brothers

Brothers, If you haven't seen this new Facebook Group to find Masonic Brothers' business and services or just to sell something, look it up and join in. This is also a good place to find help, just ask.

Masonic Thought*FREEDOM

When we think of freedom, our first thoughts are about the country that shelters us, the liberty it provides, the security it extends to comfort us, the nationalism that makes us proud. We have different views among us about the extent, value, and availability of these freedoms, even sometimes the reality.

Apart from the expressed freedoms, other freedoms do exist. Our minds and thoughts are free to choose joy, happiness, even negativity and pain. These are free to interact with each other as in recovering from pain, experiencing an event that multiplies our joy, and positive actions that reduce negativity. We can embrace the freedom to make mistakes, and to improve our choices.

There are freedoms around us that we may not recognize. That blindness of not knowing them often results from fear of the unknown. Your vision will clear as we believe in ourselves, and expand our horizons. Fear can be transformed into freedom of thought and expression, two great freedoms.

Freedoms usually have questionable shelf life. Use your freedoms to advantage, appreciate them, know them, and protect them from extinction.

David Woodland, PM

Although he is gone, in his memory we will continue to publish his articles.

Masonic Education*Forget-Me-Not

The small blue forget-me-not flower was first used by the Grand Lodge Zur Sonne in 1926, as a Masonic emblem at the annual convention in Bremen, Germany.

In 1938, a forget-me-not badge, made by the same factory as the Masonic badge, was chosen for the Nazi Party's Winterhilfswerk, the annual charity drive of the National Socialist People's Welfare (the welfare branch of the Nazi party).

This coincidence enabled Freemasons to wear the forget-me-not badge as a secret sign of membership.

After World War II, the forget-me-not flower was used again as a Masonic emblem in 1948 at the first Annual Convention of the United Grand Lodges of Germany in 1948.

The badge is now worn in the coat lapel by Freemasons around the world to remember all who suffered in the name of Freemasonry, especially those during the Nazi era.

Arizona Grand Lodge Website

In an ongoing effort to keep in touch with the Masons of Arizona, the Social Media Committee of the Grand Lodge of Arizona has launched an online Social Media monthly newsletter to recap some of the items each month that are trending around the State.

We hope that it will encourage communication and share knowledge around the State while also giving another outlet to the activities of our many Lodges in Arizona. As is the case with Social Media, we intend for it to be enjoyable and informative and hope that it will grow and adapt to the needs and wants of our Craft as it progresses.
