Volume 72 Issue 7

September 2021

Let's All Meet at Lodge to Start the Fall Events.

GREETINGS FROM THE EAST

Brothers, summer is over and all though it is still hot outside, the work again begins.

I hope everyone had an amazing break and are excited to see the progress that we have made on the East wall. Everything has been fabricated and all that is left to do is to paint. Additionally, we are now in the early stages of passing the torch to the 2022 worshipful, which means all of our officers are going to be moving up a chair. These are exciting times and I implore all of you to come to lodge and give your support to these new officers as they progress in their masonic journeys.

To honor those who work here is a poem by an anonymous mason dedicated to you who are traveling through the line, to those who have made that journey and those who seek to do so.

I SEE YOU'VE TRAVELED SOME

Wherever you may chance to be
Wherever you may roam,

Far away in foreign lands;
Or just at Home Sweet Home;

It always gives you pleasure,
it makes your heart strings hum

Just to hear the words of cheer,

GREETINGS FROM THE WEST

Welcome back!

THANK YOU to all the brothers who have been hard at work over the summer improving our lodge. When not working on physical improvements to our lodge, current and potential officers have been attending ritual practice to ensure we keep moving in the right direction towards great ritual work again. Thank you to the past masters and grand master for investing your valuable time in our lodge's continued success. We will make you proud!

Plans are being finalized for next years' activities including visiting a Prince Hall degree and having the Prince Hall masons visit our lodge for a 3rd degree, hosting the Colonial degree team's play "The Trader", having a float in the Parado del Sol parade, Military degree, a table lodge, Widow's night, Teacher's award dinner, and several social events including a Halloween party and a Christmas holiday party! Keep an eye out for a detailed list of next year's events and dates coming soon!

I am proud to say several younger Masons have raised their hand to volunteer to learn ritual.

"Many hands make a light load." Below are ten (10) committees to get involved with. Please let me know if you are interested in helping with, or learning more about any of the below committees:

- Brother's Outreach
- Fundraising
- Find new tenants
- Education
- Celestial Journey
- Events

I see you've traveled some."

When you get a brother's greeting,
 And he takes you by the hand,

It thrills you with a feeling that you cannot understand,

You feel that bond of brotherhood that tie that's sure to come

When you hear him say in a friendly way
 "I see you've traveled some."

And if you are a stranger,
 In strange lands all alone

If fate has left you stranded
 Dead broke and far from home,

It thrills you--makes you numb,
 When he says with a grip of fellowship,
 "I see you've traveled some."

And when your final summons comes,
 To take a last long trip,

Adorned with Lambskins Apron White and gems of fellowship

The tiler at the Golden Gate,
 With square and rule and plumb

Will size up your pin and say "Walk In",
 "I see you've traveled some."

Fraternally,

From the South

Brethren,

The Summer months are coming to a close, which means we all make our return back to lodge! It will be great to get back into the swing of things, and so see everybody again. I look forward to help Brothers become better men, and help them accomplish their goals.

Please enjoy this piece from WB Scott S Dueball, about the meaning the Silence.

At the beginning of Advent we heard Luke 1:11-25 and a sermon accompanying it. In this passage Zechariah is visited by Gabriel at an altar of incense. Gabriel informs Zechariah that his wife will give birth to John (the Baptist). When Zechariah questions the authenticity of Gabriel's message, Gabriel makes Zechariah silent until John's birth.

I all but completely missed this until the sermon called to my attention that the purpose of this silence may not have been punish Zechariah's lack of faith but to encourage him to listen. This explanation caught my attention as it is present in Masonry and many of the old mystical traditions. Members of the Pythagorean community had to complete a 5 year period of silence. Many eastern and western traditions incorporate various modes of meditation which seek to increase mindfulness of the present. As Masons, the theme of silence is prevalent throughout the degrees. Similar to the story of Zechariah, silence can be understood through a punitive lens but I posit that the concept of listening without the burden of having to respond is of greater value to us as Masons and humans.

In the social media age we have been given a microphone without any instruction to listen (or think) first. I am just as guilty as anyone of feeling the need to respond to EVERYTHING. There is a fine line between things that are necessary to correct and things that likely won't be solved by offering my opinion (or even facts). We miss out on a great many things when we become enamored by our own words.

As we approach this season of renewal (be that Christmas, Solstice, Chanukah or any other winter celebration), let us remember to listen to the beauty of the world surrounding us. The nights are getting longer and colder but soon the Sun will rise and give way to new beauty and warmth. Let us each commit to spending more time in silence and appreciating the sounds of yule logs crackling, children in wonder, and carolers spreading hope. Celebrate and cultivate that warmth which we as Brethren have the ability to share. Pay attention to the ways in which the Grand Architect has established his greatness in our lives. The beauty of spring depends on our ability to calm our thoughts and fully embrace the experience of winter.

AGE

Youth is the gift from nature, but aging is a work of art. A secret of aging well is to carry the spirit of the child, never losing your enthusiasm. Aging should disclose the power of personal growth, and show your own achievements. You can replace the thinking of youth with the wisdom of aging, youthful innocence with understanding, and confusion with purpose and actualization.

Some people, as in wine, improve with age, but some make vinegar. You must not discard what your life so far has provided, so examine your vineyard, look for the grapes of ambition and progress, and make the wine of your years. Be aware of the life of today, suppress the thought of comparisons with previous times. Accomplish much of the modern way, but always harboring the moralities of where you have been, and leaning on the past when called for. Hold dear the remembering of happy moments which will soften some of the difficulties that arrive with the years.

Aging should not be characterized as losing youth, but finding opportunities. Keep the mind as young as you can, and exercise it in the gym of learning. Creativity is the fuel for updating the aging mind. Embrace and hold to the age you have become. Make it the best day so far. Quoting Mark Twain,

" Age is an issue of mind over matter...If you don't mind, it doesn't matter".

FROM THE LIBRARY

In the library on top of the file cabinet there is a small photograph album. It is an interesting little album that was placed there by Brother Patrick Kiminsky. He was working the library at the time. The cover photograph should be of interest to all the members. It shows what our Lodge building looked like when it was first constructed. It shows we had parking between the building and Scottsdale road, just a memory now. There is no library and no storage units south of the Lodge Room, these were added later. The reason he started the album is he visited Detroit and the Masonic building there. He took a number of pictures of that magnificent building and a few other Michigan Lodges, well worth a look. We have added a few pictures of other Lodges including one from Campbellton New Brunswick Canada. The album can take up to 4 by 6 inch pictures. Scottsdale Lodge 43 has a number of Brothers who have moved here and we would like to have pictures of their home Lodges. We also have a number of Brothers who love to travel and have pictures of Lodges from all over the world which would add greatly to our collection. I know of one Brother who has a picture of Lodge 43 in New Zealand and another Brother who I arranged for him to attend Lodge 43 in Scotland. These would make great additions to our album. With help from our Brothers we can finish the job Patrick started many years ago and have a great addition to our library.

Editors thought, outside the box:

With the many Brothers who are bike riders, perhaps a #43 Group could be officially formed that would ride in parades and continue social activities together, while promoting Brotherhood and Masonry. If someone wants to head this up, please speak to our WM.

Note: Insurance riders would probably be needed.

WANTED...RETIRED BROTHERS

We need retired brothers who would be willing to serve on the Celestial Journey Team (Funeral Team). We don't have too many funerals throughout the year normally. Sometimes there is not a lot of notice (a few days) and right now most of our list is comprised of working brothers who can't respond that quickly. Usually, the funerals only take an hour or less. Please consider dedicating your efforts to your departed brothers by serving on the Celestial Journey Team. Email Brother Steve Clarke eispro@leaders-view.com with your email address and phone number. Call him with questions at 480-946-5390. Thank you!

From Eastern Star

We are looking forward to our busy fall; but it is especially exciting that we will be meeting our sisters and brothers in person and 'catching up' with their lives. Our first event was the Cornfest at the El Zaribah auditorium. Luckily, we have been able to sell root beer floats there for a few years; and hopefully, you had a chance to attend.

Our first fundraiser is on Sunday, September 26. It is a Luau Luncheon at 11 am for men and women. If you have a Hawaiian outfit, you can wear it, but it is not required. We also will have a 50/50 drawing plus an auction raffle. For reservations, call Linda Sayer at 480-998-7018. Save the date!

We also have a Sunday dinner on October 17 at 4pm. Save this date, too. Call Linda Sayer for reservations.

We will be initiating 3 new members in October. If you are interested in additional information regarding Eastern Star, please call our Worthy Matron, Linda or myself.

How Virtual will our future be?

Arizona Grand Lodge Website

In an ongoing effort to keep in touch with the Masons of Arizona, the Social Media Committee of the Grand Lodge of Arizona has launched an online Social Media monthly newsletter to recap some of the items each month that are trending around the State.

We hope that it will encourage communication and share knowledge around the State while also giving another outlet to the activities of our many Lodges in Arizona. As is the case with Social Media, we intend for it to be enjoyable and informative and hope that it will grow and adapt to the needs and wants of our Craft as it progresses.

Scottsdale Lodge #43 New Master Masons

His Favourite Tune

CELESTIAL JOURNEY TEAM

The roll of the workmen has been called, and four Master Masons have not answered to their names. They have laid down the working tools of the Craft and with them left that mortal part for which they no longer have use.

Their labors here have taught them to divest their hearts and consciences of the vices and superfluities of life, thereby fitting their minds as (a) living stone(s) for that spiritual building – that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Strengthened in their labors here by faith in the Supreme Being, and confident of expectation of immortality, they have sought admission to the Celestial Lodge above.

Brother Ross Theodore Summers was born June 21st, 1928, in Kingsport, Tennessee. Scottsdale #43 Brother
Accepted into Space Program

Shayne Revers was just accepted into a prestigious Scientist-Astronaut training program based in Melbourne, Florida called PoSSUM. Only fifteen applicants were accepted out of thousands from all over the world to attend the program this Fall.

The program is offered by the International Institute for Astronautical Sciences (IIAS) and is the world's first institutional sponsor of a commercial human-tended research spaceflight.

Program highlights include two simulations of weightlessness. One is scuba diving with a space suit and the other is climbing towards the edge of the atmosphere in an aircraft to experience zero gravity for several minutes.

As an aspirant of space travel(Mars particularly), Shayne has been creating important relationships with NASA astronauts as well some from the Apollo space program.

Once Shayne discovered that Freemasons were involved in the American space program every step of the way, his curiosity piqued and he started to become enlightened with Masonic books and documentaries. On his own free will and accord, he knocked on the door of Scottsdale #43 one night, but the door did not open for him until a few years later when he randomly encountered a brother from the lodge that invited him in.

Shayne is currently attending ASU to receive his second Bachelor's Degree in Geo-Science and a Master's degree in Geo-Hydrology.

If any brothers should happen to have contacts in the NASA program, please share your knowledge with Shayne: newtype8828@gmail.com

Congratulations to Brother Bill Parker on his First Place win in the

The Old Man on the Bench

I met a dear old man today
 Who wore a Masonic pin
 It was old and faded like the man,
 It's edges worn and thin.
 I approached the park bench where he sat,

To give the old brother his due
 He said, I have, have you?
 I said, I have and in my day

Before the all seeing sun
 I played in the rubble
 With Jubala, Jubalo, and Jubalum.
 He said don't laugh at the work my son

It's good and sweet and true.
 And if you've traveled as you said
 You should give these things their due.
 The word, the sign, the token,

The sweet Masonic prayer.
 The vow that you have taken
 You have climbed the inner stair.
 The wages of a Mason are never paid in gold
 But the gain comes from contentment
 When you're weak and growing old.
 You see, I've carried my obligations

For almost 50 years
 It has helped me through the hardships
 And the failures full of tears.
 I'm losing my mind and body

Death is near, but I don't despair
 I've lived my life upon the level
 And I'm dying on the square.
 Sometimes the greatest lessons

Are those that are learned anew
 And the old man in the park today
 Has changed my point of view
 To all my Masonic brothers

The only secret is to care
 May you live upon the level
 And part upon the square.

Life is Short.

The ancient Roman philosopher and statesman Lucius Seneca dedicated an entire series of letters to his friend Paulinus on the very subject of the brevity of Life. The collection, in the modern era is sometimes called "On the Shortness of Life" or "On the Shortness of Time."

In the collection, Seneca outlines the various ways in which we waste the only resource we truly command – time. But perhaps the most meaningful passage to me comes from his third letter:

Men do not suffer anyone to seize their estates, and they rush to stones and arms if there is even the slightest dispute about the limit of their lands, yet they allow others to trespass upon their life – nay, they even lead in those times who will eventually possess it. No one is found who is willing to distribute his money, yet among how many does each one of us distribute his life.

We give our time to football games that we watch alone in the privacy of our homes – to what end? We seldom spend more than a few seconds discussing the highlights with friends, but we've dedicated hours to the watching. We've done no self-improvement, we've done nothing to support, protect, or aid our fellow man.

We give our time (often as unpaid overtime) to our employers, when there is nothing returned to us except a moment on our death bed when we realize that we worked too much while we laughed and loved too little.

No one on his deathbed ever said, 'I wish I had spent more time on my business.' – Arnold Zack, as quoted by Paul Tsongas in his Memoir "Heading Home"

Our time is the only resource we have – and we don't know how much of it is available for us to use for ourselves and our families or offer to the world. It is such a small amount of time too! A man is only allotted about three score and ten years. Beyond that only the Creator grants additional time, and He can take us into the Celestial Lodge above at any moment before that. Would He approve of the ways we leveraged the use of our twenty-four-inch gauge during the time He permitted us to work in His quarries?

Fraternally,

David Earney
